Hello Everyone—

We are pleased to offer another 7 week session of our Stepping On Falls Prevention Class. Our grant from the Medical College of Wisconsin has been extended through January 2012. The next class starts on Friday, Sept. 2 and runs through Friday, Oct 14. It will be held at the Mile Bluff Medical Center on the second floor in the Community Room from 9:30-11:30 a.m. The class is evidenced based which means that the class content and activities associated with it have proven to be effective in preventing future falls and educating persons on how to structure their homes and lives to stay healthy. We hope you will join us; the class is $10, payable at the door. Call 847-9371 to sign up.

We are starting to get a few calls about this year's fuel assistance program. The program is administered by the Central Community Action Council and their phone number is 847-5988.

Kitchen volunteers are needed at the Mauston nutrition site, both as dish washers and general kitchen volunteers. Meals are served Monday-Thursday. If you can help out stop by at the site or give us a call at 847-9371. We have started a news column by the mealsite managers—check out what's happening at the sites.....and come and have lunch with us.

Summer is coming to an end but the lovely fall days are ahead of us. I hope you have had a good summer. Hopefully our farmers have had a successful growing season and we will all be able to enjoy the fruits (and vegetables!) of their labors. Enjoy these nice days....See you in October---

-Heidi

News from our Meal Sites

Camp Douglas Mealsite-

The Camp Douglas meal site was started on April 24, 1978 by Lou Ann Skaro and George Schleicher. Dee Ann Shanahan helped. It was held at Camp Inn, Main Street. Eating was done in the dining room of the Camp Inn Tavern. Juneau County Department of Aging through Marian Zabrockas made out the menu. Lou Ann Skaro cooked. It was served on trays buffet style. Doc Raymond delivered the homebound meals. The contribution was $1.25 or $1.50?

Bingo was started by Lou Ann. Some prizes given were jello, toothpaste and food items. Some participants were: Gladys Harrington, Emma Grimshaw- Norby V.A. Residents. There was one manager after Lou Ann and then Bobbi Steele. Mary Webster was hired by Marian Zabrockas in the 1980's. The food came from the Tomah Schools after a while and was "wonderful." Katie Connor and Lucy Krohn helped. Doc Raymond still delivered the homebound meals.

The lower room of the Camp Douglas Hall was used. It had a makeshift kitchen which included a sink on the wall and an old stove. Mary Webber designed the kitchen. About 12 people were served but the number greatly increased. Edith Mitchell and Harvey Madison delivered meals to the homebound. Harvey Madison and later Danell Stowell picked up participants from Hustler and returned them after the meal. Darrell went and got Caroline Barnharst, Ruth Harrison there Darell Stowell did this for about 2 years.

Some participants at the site were Harvey & Cora Madison, Clarence and Florence Hansen, Charles and Edith Mitchell, and Henry Klapproth.

Mary Webber was manager for about 8 years. In the 1980's the meals were prepared by New Lisbon Schools during the school year and by Pleasant Acres in the summer.

Leona Lauden came to help in 1955. Sandy Stevens, rural Camp Douglas, was the manager when she came. Leona has seen 9 or 10 managers come and go since then!

Elroy Meal Site-

Hello Folks,

Just a few words from the Elroy meal site. We have a bunch of happy people that come to eat and play bingo four days a week. They not only socialize but we have singalongs. I furnish the daily paper for them to read. But they enjoy winning 2 small candy bars, their prize for bingo. Everyone goes home with 2 daily even if they don't bingo twice. They all seem happy and contented folks. We do our best to keep them so.

Lyndon Station Site-

Hello from Lyndon Station Meal Site. We just had a big weekend in Lyndon. We partied in the Parkfest Parade with a banner on a van, and handed out a flyer and an Ageless newsletter for the sites. The weather was great with a large crowd. Our summer was great, but it's coming to an end too soon. See ya next month.

Betty Lackas

Mauston Meal Site-

Good friends gathered for Carol Aren's retirement party here at the site on August 9, 2011. We are sad to see Carol go. But she can always come volunteer. Dirty Clubs has become the card game of choice. Come join our card players for hours of fun. Thank you for supporting our Mauston Meal Site.

If It's Not Gov, It's Not Social Security

By Karyl Richson, Social Security Public Affairs Specialist In Milwaukee, WI.

When you go on a road trip, you need to follow the signs to arrive at the right place. Going online can be very much the same. Look for the “gov” at the end of the web address—if it isn’t .gov, it isn’t the real Social Security website.—

www.socialsecurity.gov.

Countless consumers nationwide are victimized each year by misleading advertisers who use “Social Security” or “Medicare” to entice the public to use their services. In many cases, these companies offer Social Security services for a fee, even though the same services are available directly from Social Security, free of charge. These services include:

- Updating a Social Security card to show a bride’s married name
- Replacing a Social Security card and
- Getting a Social Security Number for a child.

These for-profit businesses may cleverly design their websites, so when people use Internet search engines, the advertisement pops up. They may even make their advertisement look similar to the real Social Security website. And some of these sites, at first glance, appear to be affiliated with Social Security. But upon closer examination, there are for-profit companies charging individuals for a service that has been provided for free by Social Security.

For instance, a quick Google search on “replacing a Social Security card” brings up paid advertisements for websites that charge a fee just to get an application for a new card. That service is absolutely free from Social Security.

The law that deals specifically with misleading Social Security and Medicare advertising prohibits people or non-government organizations, like for-profit businesses, from using words or emblems that mislead others. Their advertising cannot lead people to believe that they represent or are somehow affiliated with or endorsed or approved by Social Security or the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (Medicare). But that doesn’t stop advertisers from trying. For more information, you can read our publication What You Need To Know About Misleading Advertising at www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/10005.html

When you go to www.socialsecurity.gov make sure you look for the “gov” sign along the way. Don’t be tricked into paying a fee for a service that’s free. And remember, if it isn’t .gov, it isn’t Social Security.

Social Security Field Offices to Begin Closing to the Public a half hour Early

Congressional Budget Cuts Force Reduced Public Hours

Effective August 15, 2011, Social Security field offices nationwide will close to the public 30 minutes early each day. For example, a field office that is usually open to the public Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. will close daily at 3:30 p.m.

“While agency employees will continue to work their regular hours, this shorter public window will allow us to complete face to face service with the visiting public without incurring the cost of overtime for our employees,” said Michael J. Astrue, Commissioner of Social Security. “Congress provided our agency with nearly $1 billion less than the President requested for our budget for this fiscal year, which makes it impossible for us to provide the amount of overtime needed to handle service to the public as we have in the past.”

Most Social Security services do not require a visit to an office. For example, anyone wishing to apply for benefits, sign up for direct deposit, replace a Medicare card, obtain a proof of income letter or inform us of a change of address or telephone number may do so. At www.socialsecurity.gov or by dialing our toll-free number 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778).

It's No Labor To Apply Online For Retirement Benefits

By Karyl Richson, Social Security Public Affairs Specialist in Milwaukee, WI

If you're like most workers, you've labored hard throughout the year. This Labor Day weekend, it's nice to be able to kick back and take a rest from all your hard work. But it may also be a good time to take a look at your retirement plan.

The best starting point is to visit Social Security's Retirement Estimator at www.socialsecurity.gov/estimator. The Retirement Estimator is an easy way to get an instant, personalized estimate of future retirement benefits. The Estimator uses your actual earnings history to compute a benefit estimate. However, for privacy purposes, we do not display your earnings. You can enter a variety of scenarios, such as different earnings amounts and retirement dates, to find out how they will change your benefit amount. If the picture looks better than you anticipated, you might decide it's time to punch your last time card and leave the labor force for retirement sooner than you expected. If that's the case, the easiest way to apply for retirement is online.

It used to be a labor to apply for benefits. It used to mean making a trip to a Social Security office and then being required to fill out paperwork. Now you can visit www.socialsecurity.gov/applyonline to find out everything you need to know about applying online for retirement benefits—are to proceed with filing the application online in as little as 15 minutes.

In most cases, once you can submit your online application electronically, that's it. There are no additional forms to sign or paperwork to complete. In rare cases where we need additional information, a representative will contact you.

This Labor Day, picnics, family and friends are all part of the fun you've earned on a holiday set aside to celebrate the fruit of your labor. But spend a few moments considering what your labor has earned you through Social Security protection for you and your family.

Questions & Answers

General

Question: I received a notice from Social Security recently. It said my name and Social Security number do not match Social Security's records. What should I do?

Answer: It's critical that your name and Social Security number, as shown on your Social Security card, match your employer's payroll records and your W-2 form. If they don't, here is what you need to do:

- Give your employer the correct information exactly as shown on your Social Security card or your corrected card; or
- Contact your local Social Security office (www.socialsecurity.gov/locator) or call 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778) if your Social Security card does not show your correct name and Social Security number.

For more information, visit our website at www.socialsecurity.gov

Question: Are Social Security numbers reassigned after a person dies?

Answer: No. We do not reassign Social Security numbers. In all, we have assigned more than 460 million Social Security numbers, and each year we assign about 5.5 million new numbers. The current system has enough new numbers for several more generations. For more information, visit our website at www.socialsecurity.gov or call us toll free at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800 325-0778).

Retirement

Question: Can I apply online for retirement benefits?

Answer: Yes. It's quick and easy. Apply online and save yourself a trip to the office. Once you submit your application electronically, in most cases, you're done. There are no forms to sign or documents to send in. If we do need more information to process your application, a representative will contact you. For more information about applying online, visit our website at www.socialsecurity.gov or call us toll free at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800 325-0778).

Question: If both my spouse and I are entitled to Social Security benefits, is there any reduction in our payments because we are married?

Answer: No. We independently calculate each spouse's Social Security benefit amount. Each spouse receives a monthly benefit amount based on his or her own earnings. Couples are not penalized simply because they are married. If one member of the couple earned low wages and did not earn enough Social Security credits to be eligible for retirement benefits, he or she may be eligible to receive benefits as a spouse.

Disability

Question: How does Social Security decide if I am disabled?

Answer: If you are an adult, you must be unable to work for a year or more because of a medical condition or combination of medical impairments. Overall, we use a 5 step evaluation process to decide whether you are disabled. The process considers any current work activity you are doing. It also considers your medical condition and how it affects your ability to work. To be found disabled:

- You must be unable to do the work you did before you became disabled and we must decide you cannot adjust to other work because of your medical condition; and
- Your disability must last or be expected to last, for at least 1 year or to result in death.

Social Security pays only for total disability. We do not pay benefits for partial or short-term disability. For more information read our publication Disability Benefits at www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/10029.html.

Question: If I go back to work, will I automatically lose my Social Security disability benefits?

Answer: Social Security has several work incentive programs to help people who want to work. You may be able to receive benefits and continue your health care coverage during a trial work period. For information about Social Security's work incentives and how they can help you return to work, you should:

- Visit our special work site at www.socialsecurity.gov/work;
- See the Red Book on work incentives at www.socialsecurity.gov/redbook;
- Call our toll-free number at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778) or
- Contact your local Social Security office (www.socialsecurity.gov/locator).

For more information visit our website at www.socialsecurity.gov or call us toll free at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800 325-0778).

Supplemental Security Income

Question: If I receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) disability benefits, what is the effect my benefits if I work?

Answer: In most cases, your return to work would reduce your benefit amount, and in some cases, discontinue your payments. Unlike Social Security disability, there is no "trial work period" for people who get SSI disability benefits. In most cases if your only income besides SSI is from your work, you can earn up to $1,433 in a month (in 2011) before we stop your payments. We have several publications about SSI, including Reporting your wages when you receive Supplemental Security Income, available at www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/10503.html. Note that there are other work incentives that can help you return to work when you receive SSI. You can read about them in What You Need To Know When You Get Supplemental Security Income (SSI) at www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/11011.html#part6. For more information visit our website at www.socialsecurity.gov.

Question: I am receiving Supplemental Security Income (SSI). Can my children receive dependent's benefits based on my benefits?

Answer: No. SSI benefits are based on needs of one individual and are paid only to the qualifying person. Disabled children are potentially eligible for SSI, but there are no spouse's dependent children's or survivors benefits payable as there are with Social Security benefits. For more information, see our publication, Supplemental Security Income (SSI) available online at www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/11000.html. ## Medicare

Question: Is it true that if you have low income you can get help paying your Medicare premium?

Answer: Yes. If your income and resources are limited, your State may be able to help with your Medicare Part B premium, deductibles and coinsurance amounts. State rules vary on the income and resources that apply. Contact your State or local medical assistance, social services or welfare office, or call the Medicare hotline, 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) and ask about the Medicare Savings Programs. If you have limited income and resources, you may also be able to get help paying for prescription drugs coverage under Medicare Part D. Call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY users should call 1-800-325-0778) or visit any Social Security office. Also see our publication Medicare (publication 10043) at www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/10043.html For even more information, visit our website at www.socialsecurity.gov.

Supplemental Security Income

Question: What is the purpose of Supplemental Security Income or SSI?

Answer: SSI is designed to help aged, blind and disabled people who have little income and few resources. It provides financial assistance to meet basic needs for food, clothing and shelter. You can receive SSI even if you have not worked and paid into Social Security. SSI is a Federal income supplemental program funded by general tax revenues (not Social Security). Find out more at www.socialsecurity.gov/ssi/

Question: My brother recently left me some money. Will this inheritance affect my SSI benefits?

Answer: We consider money inherited from your brother income for the month you receive it. The could make you ineligible for SSI that month, depending on the amount of the inheritance. If you keep the money within the next month, it becomes part of your resources. You cannot have more than $2000 in resources to remain eligible for SSI. You should call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 and report the inheritance. Representatives can tell you how your eligibility might be affected. People who are deaf or hard of hearing may call our toll-free TTY number 1-800-325-0778 between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Medicare

Question: Who is eligible for extra help with Medicare Prescription costs?

Answer: Medicare beneficiaries with limited income and resources may qualify for extra help. The extra help can save them money. It pays part of the monthly premiums, annual deductibles and prescription co-payments under the new Medicare prescription drug program. The extra help is estimated to be worth an average of $4,000 per year. Help someone qualify and apply at www.socialsecurity.gov/prescriptionhelp

Recognizing a Stroke

During a BBQ, a woman stumbled and took a little fall- she assured everyone she was fine (they offered to call paramedics).... She said she had just tripped over a brick because of her new shoes.

They got her cleaned up and got her a new plate of food. While she appeared a bit shaken up. Jane went about enjoying he herself the rest of the evening.

Jane's husband called later telling everyone that his wife had been taken to the hospital – (at 6:00 pm Jane passed away). She had suffered a stroke at the BBQ. Had they known how to identify the signs of a stroke, perhaps Jane would be with us today. Some don't die. They end up in a helpless, hopeless condition instead.

It only takes a moment to read this.

A neurologist says that if he can get to a stroke victim within 3 hours he can totally reverse the effects of a stroke...totally. He said the trick was getting a stroke recognized, diagnosed and then getting the patient medically cared for within 3 hours, which is tough.

RECOGNIZING A STROKE—

Thank God for the sense to remember the '3' steps. STR. Read and Learn!

Sometimes symptoms of a stroke are difficult to identify. Unfortunately, the lack if awareness spells disaster. The stroke victim may suffer severe brain damage when people nearby fail to recognize the symptoms of a stroke.

Now doctors say a bystander can recognize a stroke by asking 3 simple questions:

S *Ask the individual to SMILE

T *Ask the person to TALK and SPEAK A SIMPLE SENTENCE (coherently) Example: This is a sunny day.

R *Ask him or her to RAISE BOTH ARMS

If he or she has trouble with ANY ONE of these tasks, call emergency number IMMEDIATELY and describe the symptoms to the dispatcher.

NEW SIGN OF STROKE--- STICK OUT YOUR TONGUE

NOTE: Another 'sign' of a stroke is this: Ask the person to stick out his tongue. If the tongue is 'crooked', if it goes to one side or the other that is also an indication of a stroke.
